The Research and Publication Cell:

The Research and Publication Cell of Don Bosco College, Golaghat, is dedicated to fostering a culture of academic inquiry and scholarly dissemination among faculties and students. It plays a pivotal role in promoting research activities, facilitating academic collaborations, and ensuring high-quality publications. The cell organizes seminars, workshops, faculty development programmes, and conferences, encouraging interdisciplinary research and engagement with contemporary socio-political issues. It also oversees the Don Bosco International Journal of Humanities and Social Sciences (ISSN 3048-6823), providing a platform for scholars to publish their research findings. Through its initiatives, the Research and Publication Cell significantly contributes to the academic growth and research excellence of the institution.

The Department of Political Science:

The Department of Political Science is one of the founding departments of Don Bosco College, Golaghat, established in 2015. Since its inception, the department has been committed to academic excellence, fostering critical thinking, and promoting a deep understanding of political systems, governance, and public policy. Over the years, the department has produced many top-ranking students, with several alumni successfully working in various educational institutions and other professional fields in both government or private sectors. Through dynamic teaching methods, research-oriented learning, and extracurricular engagements, the department continues to nurture future scholars, educators, and policy makers.
