2. This Agreement is not considered to be a contract creating legal and financial obligations between DBCG and SPCM. This Agreement is designed to facilitate and develop genuine and mutually beneficial study programs, research relationships, and exchange programs.
3. It is agreed that DBCG and SPCM will work together to promote the following:
 - a. Student exchanges
 - b. Faculty and staff exchanges
 - c. Sharing of library resources
 - d. Curriculum development
 - e. Exchanges of materials, documents, and equipment
 - f. Collaborative research in any field of interest common to both institutions
 - g. Creation and organization of conferences
 - h. Cultural exchanges and other activities to increase cultural links and mutual understanding between DBCG and SPCM.
 - i. Ease of transfer of students between the two institutions; and,
 - j. Any other activity mutually agreed to between the parties.
4. This Agreement is incorporated into and will provide the foundation and framework for the particular projects developed by academic and administrative units from the two institutions and embodied in subsequent agreements. As specific projects are developed, memoranda of agreements will be created and signed by both parties regarding the specific terms of those projects.
5. This Agreement, when executed by the parties, shall continue for a period of three (3) years ending three years from the date of signing by both parties. Upon written agreement by both parties, this Agreement may be renewed for an additional period of time with notification at least six (6) months before expiration of the agreement. Either party may terminate the Agreement with six (6) months' written notice of intent to terminate.
6. Neither party is obligated to expend any resources in connection with this Agreement. To the extent that resources are expended in connection with this Agreement, each party is responsible for the resources necessary to perform its obligations under this Agreement. No implementation of any portion of this Agreement or commencement of any specific projects may be initiated prior to the written assurance of adequate budgetary resources. DBCG and SPCM may jointly or individually seek funding and other support from third parties to support activities under this Agreement.
7. This Agreement shall not be construed to create a relationship of partners, brokers, employees, servants, joint ventures or agents as between the parties. The parties to this Agreement are acting as independent participants. In the event that the parties decide to engage in activities which involve employment, separate agreements addressing those issues will be required.
8. The parties shall cooperate mutually to resolve any dispute or misunderstanding by collaboration and discussion.
